

Claims

[c1] 1. A two-piece crown assembly, further comprising: a coping, having at least a portion of one surface substantially unfinished; and a prefinished anatomy, sized such that it conforms to at least a portion of the substantially unfinished surface of the coping; means to secure the prefinished anatomy to the coping such that the coping and the prefinished anatomy form a dental crown.